

CONFEDERATE VETERANS WITHDRAW CHARGES AGAINST HOME

Trials of A. N. White, former Baptist preacher at Carlisle, and James McDonald, 84 years old, formerly of Paris, two veterans at the Confederate Home at Pewee Valley, on charges of insubordination, were postponed indefinitely by the board of trustees at the home Wednesday. According to Col. W. A. Milton, president of the board, they will not be tried as long as their behavior is exemplary.

A third veteran, P. B. Bohannon, 81, of Shelby county, was tried on the same general charge in October, found guilty, but permitted to remain at the home on the same condition. Six Baptist ministers, women and other visitors were present for the trial, but deliberations were held behind closed doors.

The resolution setting forth the postponement also repeated the board's belief in the ability and integrity of the commandant, Col. C. L. Daugherty, and his management.

OIL PLANT MANAGER SAID TO BE IN BAD

Clayton L. Long, aged about twenty-five, who has for several months been in charge of the Standard Oil Company's plant, in Paris, is missing from the city, and his books are being audited by auditors E. L. Boardman, of Louisville, and Thos. Wolf, of Georgetown.

Long, it was stated, left Paris several days ago and is said to have been seen in Cincinnati by Paris people on Tuesday. It is alleged that an investigation disclosed the fact that he had taken all of his possession from his room, and left only his bunch of keys for the plant in a dresser drawer. His individual checks said to have been given employees in payment for their salaries, were, it was alleged, returned by the bank, marked "No funds."

Mr. Long is said to be the son of an employee of the Standard Oil Company in Louisville, and was well thought of here. At present his whereabouts are unknown.

A DANGER OF THE BONUS

One of the gravest dangers connected with the bonus measure is that their success in passing it will encourage its advocates in greater raids upon the Federal treasury, in the future. The present measure will only be the beginning of what is to come.

In an address in the Senate a few days ago, Senator Dial, of South Carolina, showed that fourteen years after the close of the Civil War our pension claims from that war amounted to $33,000,000. In 1902, when the number of pensioners reached the peak, pensions had increased to $137,000,000, and in 1921 with the number nearly fifty per cent. less than at the high point, pension payments had actually increased to $258,000,000, or the greatest amount in the history of this country.

Here is an object lesson for us to study in connection with the plea for a bonus. Fifty seven years after the Civil War we are paying more pension bills than in any single year since the war closed, and nearly eight times as much as we paid in 1879, fourteen years after the end of the war.

Is there any reason to believe that the bonus, if it is passed, will not have a similar history?—Bourbon News.
